Dear Parents / Guardians,

Music trip to De Montfort Hall ~ Philharmonia, The Music of Harry Potter ~ Tuesday 1st November (5pm – 10pm)

Following the success of last year's trip to see Karl Jenkins perform in Nottingham, we have another exciting opportunity to visit De Montfort Hall on Tuesday 1st November 2022 (5pm – 10pm), to watch Philharmonia - The Music of Harry Potter. During this trip, students will experience the most enchanting moments from one of the most successful movie franchises, as well as attend an exclusive talk with the orchestra before the concert begins, a very special addition to the evening. It is a perfect trip for any GCSE music students, instrumentalists and students considering taking GCSE music in the next couple of years, as well as any Harry Potter fans – limited spaces available.

The cost of the trip will be £11.00 per student, including transport, the pre-concert talk and performance. This payment has been added to your School Gateway account. If you would like your child to attend this trip, please make payment online via School Gateway no later than Sunday 16th October 2022.

Transport and dress code

A coach will be provided to take students to and from the venue. The coach will be leaving John Ferneley College at 5pm, returning at 10pm. We ask that you make arrangements for your child to be dropped off and picked up from the College at the times above.

Students are to wear smart, casual clothing for the evening. We encourage students to dress appropriately for the occasion of a concert.

Further information about the concert can be found here:
